NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT

To: The United States Trustee, all creditors and other parties in interest.

On March 24, 2023, or as soon thereafter as the transaction may be completed, the undersigned trustee of the estate of the debtor named above will settle a controversy as follows:

The Debtor has an inherited interest in a retirement plan which she scheduled with a value of $26,517.87, which is payable in monthly installments until September of 2023. In exchange for the Debtor's assistance and cooperation in turning over each monthly installment as received, the Trustee will release any claim to the Debtor's non-exempt snowblower, television, DVD Player, cell phone, tablet, computer, printer, and costume jewelry, all of which have a combined non-exempt scheduled value of $350. The Trustee will also release any claim to the balances in the Debtor's checking and savings accounts, with a combined balance of $70; and her earned but unpaid wages in the non-exempt amount of $345.75. The Trustee believes this settlement is in the best interest of the estate because it avoids the expense and delay of attempting to compel the retirement plan administrator to make payments directly to the estate, or in the alternative, factoring the payments to a liquidation company at a substantial discount. The settlement should allow the estate to receive the full face value of the remaining payments.

OBJECTION: MOTION: HEARING. Under applicable rules, any objection must be in writing, be delivered to the trustee and the United States Trustee, and be filed with the clerk, not later than 12:00 o'clock noon on the day before the above date. If an objection is made or an order is required, the trustee moves the court for such orders as may be necessary and appropriate. If an objection is timely delivered or filed, the court may hold an expedited hearing on the objection with reduced notice of the hearing. The hearing will be scheduled by the trustee with notice by the trustee to the objecting party and the United States Trustee.
